Dedication to Mr. Wight

Words can't even describe how much you have meant to the Class of 2009. You've been there through our struggles and through our moments of triumph, and your support hasn't gone unnoticed, even though you may have wanted it to! You're not a man of many words but whether it's in the classroom, on the soccer field or in the middle of the freezing cold woods, you always know just what to say to inspire us. You've watched us grow over the past four years, and your subtle guidance has helped many of us become the adults we are today. Our first impression of you was a little skeptical. What were we to expect from the ex-marine who could easily kick any of our butts?! What were we to think about the man who didn't let anything get past him? But we grew to know you as an amazingly kind-hearted, compassionate and downright inspiring person. You've truly been of great importance to us all, and you can't imagine how much we'll miss you. We all wish we could be as lucky as Addie to have you as our Pop!

Love,
Class of 2009

Mom & Dad: You two are the reason why I had the opportunity to go to Gould and I do not think I ever got a chance to tell you how thankful I am. I love you two more than anything else. You mean the world to me and I just wanted to let you know that.

EPIC (Extreme Partners In Crime): Chelsea, Brittany and Caitlin we have had a lot of fun together. Whether it be playing at Britts condo, the dorm or even in Boston we have made the best of time and are going to miss u terribly.

Grace: You are best friend I do not know what I would do without you (I honestly don't). Next year is going to be hard without you. Who will I have R time with? Haha. When ever you need someone do not hesitate to call me because I will always be there for you. I have come to realize that you are more than my best friend but my sister. LOVE YOU!!!

2 of Clubs: Feb. 22, 2008 marks the date that brought us all together. As much as that experience of getting caught sucks, I am happy it happened because of much closer we became after it. You all are boss bitches Love you all.

The Mannings: You have been my surrogate parents. Thanx a bunch. Love you both.

So it's finally over. It's really cliched but I just want to express my gratitude to all my friends here, and, though they might not read it, my friends back home. These have been the best years of my life and though I'm sure they aren't over yet, the lessons I've learned about the myself and the world around me will stay with me forever.

“To win without risk is to triumph without glory”

Mom- You have always been there for me, thank you! I am going to miss not being home everyday and being able to always go to you looking for a hug. You have helped me grow to become independent, thankful, driven, curious and strong. You are my “bridge over troubled water.”

Dad- Thanks for always pushing me to be the best that I can be, even in the times when I didn't need it. You have shown me that working hard always pays off, and look at me now, I am following a path that I have dreamed about ever since I was younger. You always inspire me to set my goals higher.

Jackie- You truly are my best friend. We've been through a lot together, and I don't ever want it to be any different. Remember that I am always here for you, and keep working hard because you've come so far already. “Never say never and always shoot for the moon!”

Taylor- or should I say “T-Time?” You have so much potential to be the best at whatever it may be, sports, leadership, school, or just being a good person. Don't ever get down when times get tough, because those times are inevitable, but it's what you do to pull yourself out that makes you the strongest.

Mr. Wight- Mr. Wight I don't know what I would do without you. You have always been there for me, and have taught me so much. You are one of the best teachers I have ever had, and one of the best coaches. You have inspired me to grab hold of my dreams and never let go. Thank you!

To the girls and my boy: KD, KM, GL, BR, IL, CF, CE, CH- you guys have taught me so much, and don't ever forget that I love you immensely and I am only a phone call away!!

2009

Niko, Lazlo, & Derek

To all in the class of 2009 we made it. In our own way, on our own time, it happened exactly as it should have. I always thought there would be so much more to write, I think I now see my world as a simpler place, where too much emotion is unnecessary. I love and believe in all of my friends. You all have been my heart and support through my chaotic years in high school, and for that I owe you the world. Mom, you are the most amazing mother any girl could ever ask for. You light up my life in so many ways and always find a way to keep me smiling. You are dedicated and hardworking, and every day I try to become a little more like you. Seamus, Eilish and Fionn, you each make up little pieces of me. Without each of you I could never be the person I am today. I need you three to learn and strive for my best and I hope we will always be close. Dad, I really hope we have the ability to move on, I do love you. Ryan, I hope we are looking at this in 30 years talking about the cookie dough ice cream we ate the night before. You have been a part of my life for so long, that I consider you my family and therefore love you with every little piece of me. I truly believe that in order to create a new beginning, there has to consequently be an ending to something truly meaningful. 2009, I hope life brings you everything you have ever wanted.

"I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean. Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens. Promise me you'll give faith a fighting chance... As we watch you today, we feel so much pride and joy. We know how far you have come. Yet, always know that your best days lie ahead. You must never let your memories overtake your dreams. Dear Brittany Beauty Queen,
This really is the end of your beginning, isn't it? Your Gould years have been wonderful years, full of happiness and wonder, challenge and question, work and accomplishment. I am proud of your contributions to the Gould Academy community, and I am happy and excited about the new life you have chosen for yourself at George Washington. Through it all, no matter what, remember you are my daughter forever, I am your dad forever, and I will love you forever.

Love, Dad

Congratulations on making it through. I never thought you had it in you! It has been awesome watching you grow up over the past five years. Keep up the impressive work that you have already started. Have fun at GW.

Love, Thomson

P.S. The Mannings like me way more than you!

Yeah Albacore Tuna! It has been awesome growing up with you the past five years! I think I am older than you (Mom and Dad said I was), but I am grateful and lucky for having you around to help me grow and mature for as long as I have. From the summer car rides going to the gym, to working as my secretary and living with me in Boston for a summer, I will greatly miss you as you leave New England. I know you'll continue to be amazing!

Love, Will

P.S. The Mannings would have liked me the most!

Lean against a tree
and dream your world of dreams
Work hard at what you like to do and try to overcome all obstacles
Laugh at your mistakes
and praise yourself for learning from them
Pick some flowers
and appreciate the beauty of nature
Be honest with people
and enjoy the good in them
Don't be afraid to show your emotions
Laughing and crying make you feel better
Love your friends and family with your entire being

They are your most important part of your life
Feel the calmness on a quiet sunny day
and plan what you want to accomplish in life
Find a rainbow
and live your world of dreams
I love you
